Why consider a Forever Fund with CFF?

An endowed fund, such as our Forever Fund, is ideal for those who are looking to support a particular nonprofit or cause for generations to come. Simple to include as part of an estate plan, we work with you and your professional advisors to make the process seamless. While there are many places to establish an endowed fund, Central Florida Foundation offers something special—a local team deeply rooted in this community and dedicated to honoring legacies. For over 30 years, families and individuals have trusted us to help their generosity live on for generations. Read about one of those families here.
